Class Notes

October 16, 2008

FYI

Please take note of the following...

- Calendar sales are in full swing. I just want to make you aware that if you are challenged in selling the two calendars that your child was given, that they can be returned. Be sure to sign them back in at the office so that we can keep an accurate count. We are in need of Washington state calendars, if you have any that you are unable to sell please return them to the office so that they can be sold.
- The grading period ends on Friday, October 17. All back work should be turned in no later than Thursday, October 24 by 3:00 p.m. If you need a summary of missing or incomplete work please contact me ( email: rpeinado@sasonline.org).
- Our next field trip at Scappoose Public Library is scheduled for Tuesday, 10/27. Look for a permission slip in next week's Thursday envelope.

Harvest Festival

Our annual Harvest Festival is scheduled for this Sunday, beginning at 4 PM. Come and enjoy yummy food (corn on the cob & vege-burgers), fun games and activities for all ages! There will be a Cake Auction and don't forget that this is our last day of our Scholastic Book Fair.

Parent Teacher Conferences

Parent-Teacher Conferences are scheduled for Wednesday, October 29. Included in your Thursday envelope is a sign-up form for your convenience. Please take a moment to fill it out and return by next Friday, October 24. Included with the sign up form is a pre-conference form. Please fill this form out and attach it to your sign-up form so that I can be prepared to discuss your child's progress, along with any questions or concerns you may have.

Appreciations

A big thank you to all our parent volunteers who have helped our class in ways we can never begin to repay—from field trip drivers to hot lunch participation to keeping our computers up and running and so much more. Kudos to Craig Chabala, Karen Hawks, Tina Heller, Tina Luna, Kristi Loeks, Kris Nagele, Mechelle Peinado and Mary Sperl. And to all of you who help in unknown ways. Thank you.
